

RESULT TODAY

AN INSPECTION by the drug regulator would understandably send pharma companies into a tizzy but the country's apex drug regulatory body – the Central Drugs and Standards Control Organisation – is currently in that state itself with a WHO team reviewing its processes for international benchmarking. On Friday, when there is debriefing of senior officials by the team, CDSCO will be given a rating on a scale of one to five – five being the highest.