

Marck is now Amanta Healthcare

Ahmedabad, September 16

The Ahmedabad-based Marck Biosciences Ltd, manufacturer and marketer of sterile dosages and blow-fill-seal (BFS) specialist, on Tuesday announced its rebranding as Amanta Healthcare. Bhavesh Patel, Managing Director, said in a statement here that the company has invested ₹45 crore in expanding its capacity. It now plans to recruit about 225 people.

Amanta's new logo expresses dynamism and symbolises mobility, freedom and pioneering, he said. Amanta's products are marketed in 77 countries across five continents. Recently, it received the MCC - South Africa approval for its small volume parenterals at the Kheda plant.
